ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

CELERITY EDUCATIONAL GROUP

A California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation

ARTICLE I.

NAME

The name of the corporation shall be Celerity Educational Group.

ARTICLE II.

PURPOSES AND POWERS

This corporation is a nonprofit public benefit corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law for public and charitable purposes.

1. The specific purpose for which this Corporation is organized and operated shall include the following objects and purposes:

a. To serve at-risk children, youth and their families by establishing and operating charter schools and by implementing programs and activities for at-risk children, youth and their families, including, without limitation, after school, evening and summer programs and other programs and activities; and

b. To have in furtherance of the foregoing purpose, all of the powers which are now, or may hereafter be, conferred upon corporations organized under the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, and to do everything necessary, suitable, useful, proper, convenient or incidental to any one or more of the said objects or purposes and in carrying on its business, to do any and all things and exercise any and all powers which a natural person could do and exercise, or which it now or hereafter may be permitted to do by the laws of the State of California.

2. This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States internal Revenue Law). Notwithstanding any other provision in these articles, the corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that do not further the purposes of this corporation, and the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by (a) a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), or (b) a corporation to which contributions are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

3. No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this corporation shall not directly or indirectly participate or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE III.

AGENT FOR SERVICE OF PROCESS

The name and address in the State of California for the initial agent for service of process of this corporation is:

Vielka McFarlane
13428 Maxella Avenue #191
Marina del Rey, CA. 90292

ARTICLE IV.

MEMBERS

This corporation has no members.

ARTICLE V.

DEDICATION AND DISSOLUTION

1. All corporate property is irrevocably dedicated to the purposes set forth in Article II. No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall ever inure to or for the benefit of or be distributable to any director, trustee, officer or other individual, except that the corporation shall be empowered to pay reasonable and proper remuneration for services actually rendered and to make payments and distribution in furtherance of the exempt purposes for which it was formed.

2. Upon the winding up and dissolution of this corporation, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of this corporation, the remaining assets shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for educational purposes meeting the requirements of Section 214 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.
